

ABOUT US

Interperso is the flagship product of our company Edupristine Pvt Ltd. Interperso is a virtual assistant which helps in analyse, practise and improve the soft skills in english language. Combining virtual reality with in-person training and AI integrated feedback system, interperso gives users a chance to practise what they have learnt in realistic environments, helping them in developing essential soft skills more effectively. Through our language experts and state of art technology we foster the quality in learning the language, leading to accomplishment of the dreams of our users.

Virtual Reality Interface

Experience the real life public speaking scenarios in our Virtual Reality interface and get rid of the fear of public speaking.

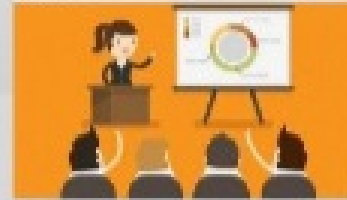

Performance Tracking & Analytics

Get accurate feedback on your skills each time on various parameters and suggestions are given on the areas of improvement.

Public Speaking Assistant

Our public speaking assistant enables users to practise in various public speaking scenarios like presentations, conferences, elevator pitch etc... and get feedback each time.

Expert Advice

Get connected with the industry experts online. This aids to the preparations of the users.

Peer Learning

Users can invite their friends to analyse and evaluate the presentation skills. Features like group discussion, group presentations etc... are also embedded.

Interview Assistant

Prepare for different sets of interviews with the help of our virtual assistant powered by Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning.

