Overview of the Rajasthan Police Movie Production Initiative

A unique initiative aimed at transforming a theatrical performance into a full-fledged movie production. The process begins with auditions of interested candidates from the Rajasthan Police, from which 20-30 participants will be selected. These candidates will undergo a week of intensive training, during which they will learn their lines and familiarize themselves with the script.

The culmination of this initiative will be a live performance at the JECC. This event will also be recorded to produce a movie, capturing the entire theatrical experience. TOSS's involvement will span approximately three weeks, ensuring a seamless and impactful production.

Script & Flow

The script will be developed in alignment with the department, then refined to deliver strong messaging infused with an artistic voice and emotional depth.

Auditions (2–3 Days)

Live auditions will be held at the department locations, with a camera setup to record each participant delivering their lines. This will help assess confidence, stage presence, and commitment. If 20 candidates are needed for the play, 30 will be trained to ensure a ready backup.

Theatre Workshop at TOSS Jaipur

The workshop will be conducted at the TOSS Jaipur campus, fully equipped with props, microphones, and infrastructure. A team of experienced theatre mentors will guide participants in learning, rehearsing, and refining their roles.

JECC

Once the sets are ready, the final phase of preparations will take place at JECC, where trainers will ready participants for the movie production shoot.

Direction

Lights. Camera. Action.

4-6 Consultants from Team Raj Police

The production team will require consultants from your team to streamline the entire process. The consultants will also be given production roles, such as casting directors, script writers, producers and directors

Performance

The entire team will be supported by mentors and directors throughout their performances during the summit.
